

Workforce Accolades & Highlights

- Fortune magazine ranked Cincinnati 7th among the top 15 U.S. cities as a great place to live and work.
- Employment Review and Outlook both list Cincinnati among the 20 best U.S. cities in which to live and work.
- Entrepreneur magazine ranks Cincinnati 1st in Best Bets for lowest business failure rates and Top Hot Spots for small business growth. The magazine also ranked Cincinnati 16th among large cities - 4th in the Central U.S.
- Yahoo Internet Life says Cincinnati is one of the Top Wired Cities in 2000 - ranking it 25th out of 50.
- 40,000 working scientists and engineers – within 50 mile radius).
- University of Cincinnati graduates 600 engineers each year in the largest mandatory co-op program of any public university in the nation.
- Cincinnati State Technical and Community College graduates approximately 800 students each year with a nationally recognized 98% job placement.
- Great Oaks, the largest vocational school district in the world – providing training to 70,000 adults in cooperation with local business and industry.